COURSE LENGTH: 2.0 DAYS

Critical thinking involves a number of processes including identifying and evaluating specific situations, being aware of any contributing circumstances and the potential results of your actions or plans. To think critically, it is important to evaluate various perspectives (yours and others) to identify the resources available to you and evaluate the short and long-term effects of taking a particular action.

The PD Training Critical Thinking Training Course in Kuala Lumpur provides training in identifying support structures, perspectives and arguments and how to critically evaluate the advantages and the disadvantages of a proposed plan or an action, so that the right decisions can be made the first time. Learn the difference between left brain and right brain thinking, removing the emotions from decision making, evaluating both sides of an argument and critical questioning skills.

CRITICAL THINKING TRAINING - 2 DAYS COURSE OUTLINE

FOREWORD

In this course by PD Training in Kuala Lumpur, you'll get hands-on experience with a wide range of practical tools to help you make critical thinking an indispensable part of your skill set and management style. You'll learn things about yourself that you didn't know and make internal, personal discoveries that can literally change the way you think about and approach your life.

Instead of concentrating on far out theories, you'll be working with an expert instructor to get comfortable with a concrete set of tools. After practicing things like left brain and right brain thinking patterns, asking probing questions and analyzing potential outcomes, you'll be prepared to benefit from your new critical thinking skills immediately.
